Operator competence register

One line for each person who applies pesticides on your sites. Check it at least once a year.

Organisation _____ Checked by _____ Date checked _____

| Name | Qualificationfor example, Level 2 Award | Certificate number | Date gained | Equipment coveredfor example, knapsack or boom | Training points schemeand renewal date | Next check due | Notes |
|---|---|---|---|---|---|---|---|
| | | | | | | | |
| | | | | | | | |
| | | | | | | | |
| | | | | | | | |
| | | | | | | | |
| | | | | | | | |
| | | | | | | | |
| | | | | | | | |
| | | | | | | | |
| | | | | | | | |
| | | | | | | | |

New starters or certificates to renew? We train operators who apply products on your sites and arrange their assessment. Call 01580 212 519 or visit weedmanagement.co.uk.

Every professional user of plant protection products must hold a recognised certificate of competence (Plant Protection Products (Sustainable Use) Regulations 2012). Check certificates against the equipment each person uses.